

Yüksel İnşaat continues to support education in regions it operates. The 157 m² prefabricated building, originally used as a dormitory at the construction site of Kandil Dam and HEPP, has been donated to Elbistan Technical and Industrial Vocational High School to be used as a workshop. With this occasion the students, who until now did not have a workshop to turn their theoretical knowledge into practice, will have the chance.

{backbutton}